

History

Local history study about:
Industry in Bourton
The school
Census study
The factory in Bourton
Recent developments (roads etc).

PSHE

Me and my relationships
Being assertive
Negotiation skills
Being friends
How can I be a good friend?

PE

Monday – gymnastics
sequences.
Moving with control.
Wednesday – with coach, football.

Music:

How does music
connect us with our past?

English:

Writing - Planning and writing a narrative based on the text “The Fantastic flying Books of Morris Lessmore.

Discussion text – debating circuses in the Victorian era.

GPS – parenthesis, modal verbs, colons,
semi-colons.

Whole Class Reading – a variety of extracts linked to our learning.

Class Book: Wild Boy

People of Bourton

Foxes – Autumn 2023

Science - Living things – classification

The history of classification.

Understanding how micro-organisms, plants and animals can be divided into groups, according to common observable characteristics.

To use and devise classification keys for living things, giving reasons for why animals and plants belong in particular groups.

MATHS

Place value –
numbers to 1000000

Rounding to nearest 10, 100, 1000

Ordering numbers

Addition and Subtraction – mental and formula methods of calculation

Multiplication and

Division – using common facts,
primes, place value.

Statistics – reading and understanding timetables.

RE: Sikhism.

How do Sikhs
demonstrate their commitment to God?

Computing:

Create media
using technology
Internet safety